> Re: Notice of Copyright Infringement and Violation of BlueHost.com's Service > Agreement

Dear Sir/Madam:

We represent Infomastery LLC ("Infomastery") in connection with copyrighted materials that have been improperly and illegally posted on a website by one of your registrants. We are writing BlueHost.com as the registrar, registrant and provider of web hosting services for the domain name saltydroid.info regarding use of the domain name to infringe Infomastery's copyrights.

We understand that BlueHost.com serves as a "privacy service" for the true registrant of saltydroid.info. We trust that BlueHost.com's policies allow it to reveal the registrant's identity and contact information in cases where the domain name is being used to violate or infringe the copyrights and other legal rights of our client. Accordingly, based on the information below, we ask that BlueHost.com forward the true registrant's contact information to us so that we can address this issue with the registrant directly. We also ask that BlueHost.com terminate its services related to the hosting of the website at satlydroid.info for copyright infringement and other violations of BlueHost.com's Terms of Service Agreement (the "Service Agreement").

Infomastery registered and operates a website at socialmediamoneysystem.com, where consumers can purchase online downloadable software in which Infomastery owns the copyrights. Infomastery recently discovered what appears to be a blogging website at saltydroid.info. This blog contains links Internet users could use to download Infomastery's copyrighted software free of charge. The links are not publically available, and their posting on the saltydroid.info websites is without permission and constitutes copyright infringement. Copies of the relevant web pages at saltydroid.info are attached for your reference.

Infomastery moved its software to a new online location promptly after discovering the links posted on saltydroid.com. Accordingly, those links no longer point to active web pages. Based on information on the saltydroid.info website, however, it appears that several people were able to download Infomastery's software before the links were disabled. The blog on saltydroind.com also indicates that the blogger plans to continue his attempts to locate the software and again make it available for public download.

As I am sure you are aware, BlueHost.com's Service Agreement prohibits subscribers from engaging in certain prohibited activities. Under Section 9.1 of the Service Agreement, engaging in these activities constitutes a material breach, which subjects the subscriber's account to immediate termination. We believe the material posted on saltydroid.info regarding our client and its software violates, at a minimum, sections 9.3, 9.4 and 9.6 of the Service Agreement, which relate to prohibited offerings, profanity and violations of intellectual property rights, respectively. A copy of the relevant portions of the Service Agreement is attached for your reference. Unauthorized use of copyrighted material is also prohibited by the Digital Millennium Copyright Act.

Based on the above, we ask that BlueHost.com immediately disable all hosting services for the saltydroid.info website and provide us with the name and contact information for the registrant of the saltydroid.info domain name so that we may contact him or her directly regarding this matter.

We look forward to your prompt attention and cooperation. If you have any questions or require additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very Truly Yours,

Paul Trahan

The No Money System

23 July 2009 Comments 14

Are you going to make any money from Evil Jowls Perry Belcher's newest Frauduct :: Social Media Money System? Spoiler Alert :: NO! You aren't. Read my review {obvious link} and find out exactly why it blows so much chunk.

That said :: Here it is for FREE :: what what what???

Yep! Along with not understanding Social Media or Marketing :: Evil Jowls is also a suck ass nerd {as in ... most definitely NOT a nerd}. ALL of the files for the Social Media Money System are available for FREE download below. They're hosted on the Amazon Cloud ... and they have not been properly secured because there are some D-Bag fucking n00bs at the helm of this horror show of a vessel.

I've known about these files for 8 days {thanks friend-o-mine} :: But I suspect they've been available for much longer. Many of The Night Dwellers {you know who you are} have already consumed this product and seeded it on torrent sites. Consider that fact if you are thinking about being a sold-out-bitch {affiliate} and selling this shit for Perry Belcher. This girl has already been {well and truly} passed around.

:: Initiate –> Sequence of Apparentlys ::

Apparently :: Perry and Ryan don't GET how AWS works {they also don't GET that joke}.

Apparently :: Perry and Ryan, Internet Marketing "Gurus" :: Don't read the Internet Marketing forums {where news of this FREE program abounds}.

Apparently :: Perry and Ryan don't know how to monitor downloads or bandwidth {hello fucktards?? try paying attention to things}.

Apparently :: Perry and Ryan have yet to learn that whenever 66.92.131.218 shows up to one of their ScamHoles ... Something terrible is about to happen {they should set up a track log ... if only they knew how}.

Hey Perry :: As I think I may have mentioned to you on a couple of other choice occasions ::

You're Welcome!

>> bleep bleep {pwned!}

Just click on any link below to begin downloading the file :: But with this one word of caution :: Even for free ... it's a total fucking rip-off.

Happy to get a Ping from Mike Young! Horah ... Now maybe Google will notice how much I talk about Perry Belcher :: eh Google?? I talk about Perry Belcher more than Perry Belcher talks about Perry Belcher :: eh Google??

Just to make sure it's perfectly clear to the many stupid n00bs reading this blog {a n00b is the sort of person that doesn't know what a n00b is :: and doesn't immediately think of asking google about it} :: These links are to the Belcher and Deiss Amazon Cloud {giant computer in the sky} by way of their own servers. I haven't done anything fancy to make it available :: Belcher and Deiss made it available themselves via brainlessness ... and then failed to notice that they had done so for {at least} a week. I just pasted in the links :: And snarked my little head off.

I think many people agree with you, on some level, about Perry.

He did some very bad things. He should have been punished. And he was.

And now he's getting on with his life.

You might think the punishment was too light. You're entitled to your opinion.

However, what you have done here is steal someone else's private property.

And this makes you as much of a scum bag as you accuse Perry of being.

I'm sure some will debate the magnitude of your crime vs. the magnitude of Perry's. I'm sure it will be lively.

But scum bags are scum bags and thieves are thieves. And you are a thief. And, IMO, a scum bag.

Unfortunately, the current legal system is ill-equipped to prosecute you for your crime. So you're going to get away with this.

Didn't you make the same sort of comments about Perry's situation?

If you believe anything you've written about Perry, it seems to me the only moral thing for you to do would be to turn over all of the money you've made from this blog, and any other online businesses, to the Federal Government.

You're a thief. You should be the first person who stands up to say you should have to forfeit all of your money.

And then lock yourself up for a few years. I doubt you'll be able to talk any prison into taking you, so you'll just have to take care of that yourself.

Thanks for hosting such a lively discussion on so many topics. Once you're out of home-jail, and manage to raise some money for web hosting, I hope to see you back online again.

I haven't stolen JACK CRAP guy :: Perry put those links up like that :: He's offering to give it to you and you are rejecting him. I, for one, think it is quite rude of you. Perry loves you ... accept his offer.

The topline price on this product seems to be $3000 :: That's approx $3000 more than I have made writing this blog. If you count my time {WHICH I FUCKING DO} then this blog is costing me a goddamn fortune.

But it's been more than worth it ... cause today this Fat Bastard is sweating his HUGE mistake and his embarrassment while he supposed to be speaking at a "conference" ... and I'm sitting in my fucking pajamas ... laughing by proxy for all the people he's hurt.

Had Belcher moved on with his life to a higher level of morale, he'd have removed his "pharmaceutical" products from Amazon. Try harder.

Uh, idiot, Salty Droid didn't steal anything. He just posted OPEN LINKS (which have been circulating on TONS of public forums for days, BTW, probably thanks to Belcher's own sloppy staff or affiliates). It's Belcher's responsibility to restrict his own links. Otherwise it's just like leaving your stuff on an open sidewalk, which makes YOU the dummy.

What money do you think the Droid makes off this site? I don't see any ads, affiliate links, or products. It looks to me like he's genuinely trying to help people avoid getting ripped off. Clearly, he pays his own expenses and doesn't make a dime based on what I can see.

But, you're right: a LOT of people (except you) think Perry Belcher got off way too easy after RIPPING SICK PEOPLE OFF for YEARS. Maybe that is no big deal to you, since you have no heart or soul.

I have to say, you sound just like that Harlan Kilstein bird that he's written about before. There's just something missing from your strange reality.

What the hell man? Why did you have to go public with this? WHY? * you man, now they moved there files to another location, and my download is stuck now - I've only been able to download half of the course since I started it yesterday...

What's the big deal if its not secured? Even a $2,000 product like Mass Control can be downloaded for free (Frank's AWS URL isn't secured either)...

I'm happy to concede that Perry's done some bad stuff.

If there's a hell, he's going there.

Not the point.

The links above allowed people to steal Perry's private property.

By SD logic, if he leave his keys in the car, he's cool with you taking it. Because he didn't secure it. So it's not a crime to take it.

If he forgets to lock his front door, or leaves a window open, he's cool with you entering his home and taking away anything you like.

Perry and/or his staff messing up on securing the links does not give anyone a legal, and certainly not an ethical, rights to steal his intellectual property.

If you think it's OK to steal from anyone who's ever broken a law, then you think it's OK to steal from 99% of adults on the planet.

If all you've got going for your self-image right now is that you're not as bad a person as Perry, then you're probably a pretty bad person.

As I posted above, it's too bad that current laws and enforcement won't send SD to jail. Because he might not be as bad of a guy as Perry, but he's a bad guy.

The Floportunity of a Lifetime

23 July 2009 Comments 0

Today is the official launch of Evil Jowls Perry Belcher's new Frauduct :: FatBoy's Got Bills :: No wait … that's not it … it's the Social Media Money System :: which is even stupider.

Due to the power of Perry's stupidity :: The Salty Droid was able to access this entire program free of charge more than a week ago {and you can too!}. Nothing less than my {fake} devotion to you :: my foolish reader :: Gave me the temerity and will power required to actually listen to a large portion of this program. It was a harrowing experience in which several times I feared I might actually fucking perish from stupid-overload. But I have survived to tell you the tale :: And I'm sure the flashbacks will cease within a couple of months.

Non-Legal Disclaimer :: I DO NOT need to view these programs to know that they are rubbish. And in the case of Magnificent D-Bag Extraordinaire Perry Belcher :: The quality level of the content is absolutely fucking irrelevant. Evil Jowls just completed a decade long scam in which he STOLE hundreds of thousands of dollars from the sick :: Even if he produced {quell laughter} quality content :: He does not deserve ANYONE'S business. Never-the-less :: I have viewed this particular turd :: So let's have some girl talk about it.

First, the program has incredibly low production values. Most of videos are just lazy screen captures of Perry's desktop :: or slow moving text only slides. The content will take up 8-10 hours of your precious time :: But it could easily be cut down to about 10 minutes. Here goes ::

:: The core ideas {obvious overstatement} of this program are as follows ::

1. You set up an account using your real name on all the main Social Networking sites {special emphasis on Twitter, Facebook, and YouTube}.

2. You start follow spamming on Twitter {following people by the thousand and unfollowing people who don't follow you back}.

3. Find things to Tweet that are already popular by going to sites like PopURL or Alltop. No need to actually read or give a crap about what you find there :: It's already popular so :: Just Tweet It.

4. ReTweet other people without regard for the value of their content in the vain hope that they will do the same the for you.

5. Occasionally tweet links to your own blog or website. Use the blog to direct people to the shit you want them to buy.

6. Profit.

That's it! Poorly presented and replete with LIES, errors, and a fundamental misunderstanding about how Social Media works {all to be hilariously detailed later}. There are no secrets, no hidden jackpots, no new or interesting strategies. It's just Perry :: Taking your goddamn money :: Again.

I was expecting almost nothing :: Yet I was disappointed. If you've already paid :: Get a refund. If you haven't paid :: download it for FREE {here}. If the free download has dried up :: Save your money and gain wisdom just by NOT LISTENING to idiot FELON Perry Belcher.
